

TEMPLE BRITH ACHIM SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

DANNY SIEGEL

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 2018 —
SUNDAY, JUNE 3, 2018

- Author, educator, lecturer, poet
- One of the world's greatest experts on philanthropy
- Lectured in hundreds of communities on personalized tzedakah and tikkun olam
- Founder & chairman of Ziv Tzedakah Fund, distributing nearly $14,000,000 from 1981 until 2008

Reservations required for dinner & volunteer opportunities. Register now at www.brithachim.org to take your place on the assembly line!

Program made possible by a generous donation from the Powell Family Foundation.

FRIDAY NIGHT, 7:30PM: FAMILY SHABBAT SERVICE

Following Services, Danny Siegel will speak at the oneg on “Being a Mitzvah Hero: Changing the World One Mitzvah at a Time,” and discuss some of the local projects he has been involved with, as well as the people who made them happen. Open to everyone of all ages.

SATURDAY, 9:00AM: TORAH STUDY

All are welcome to study sacred texts about tzedakah and discuss our obligation to give.

SATURDAY DINNER, 6:30PM

Reservations Required

Dairy dinner, catered by Panache Catering by Foodarama. Cost is FREE for Members; $18 for Non-Members.

SATURDAY EVENING, 7:30PM

Danny will speak on “Micro-Philanthropy: Small Change Leading to Big Changes.” Participate in a micro-philanthropy activity and make a difference in the world!

SUNDAY, 10:00AM

Reservations Required

Keynote by Danny Siegel, followed by volunteer event for international hunger relief organization Rise Against Hunger.